HULL INDEPENDENT ASSOCIATION

D. J. Murphy, President

C. F. Packard, Sec'y and Treas.

Allerton (Hull), Mass., Oct. 28, 1918.
Hull East Wind,
Mrs. E. J. Sirovich, Publisher.

Dear Madam:

Enclosed please find a duplicate letter dated Oct. 26, 1918, which has been sent to the Board of Selectmen. It is in compliance with a vote passed at a recent meeting of the Hull Independent Association.

After much discussion it was thought fitting to draft, and send a communication to the Selectmen, requesting they take steps along the lines of progress, and cause to be erected a 'Roll of Honor Tablet' or some other fitting tribute to those who have entered the service of our country, which other cities and towns have done or are doing.

We feel that this is a matter that has been overlooked or neglected by the people of Hull and by giving it wide publicity as you and the East Wind can, will bring about the desired result at an early date. Trusting you will publish it in our next issue, I am,

Very truly yours,
CLAREMONT F. PACKARD,
Sec'y H. L. Ass'n.

Allerton, (Hull), Mass., Oct. 26, 1918.
The Honorable Board of Selectmen,
Town of Hull,

James Jeffrey, Sec'y.

This being a time when patriotic acts and deeds of heroism, as well as acts of suffering and hardships are being progressed and endured without a murmur, it seems most fitting, if we of this community should show in some fitting manner our appreciation and recognition of their acts.

The Town of Hull and the citizens thereof are, I believe, considered to be progressive and have the right to aspire, to equal, or even surpass any town in the Commonwealth.

Other cities and towns have seen fit to create and erect 'Roll of Honor' tablets or monuments in honor and recognition of those, who have entered the service of the United States in the prosecution of the greatest of wars within the history of man.

Although we have not as yet erected any monument or Roll of Honor to those who fought and bled in our struggles of '61 to '65. Let's not go down in the future, as not showing honor and appreciation to those who have entered or about to enter this, the greatest of conflicts.

This question was taken up and discussed by the Hull Independent Association at the last meeting. A unanimous vote was passed by the Association members. Requesting the secretary to communicate with the Board of Selectmen asking:

The Selectmen to design and create a proper and fitting Roll of Honor Tablet and erect same in some prominent location in the Town, with the names thereon of those who have entered the service from the town, in order that the general public might be apprised to whom they should show esteem and appreciation.

Turming your board may see fit to comply with this, a worthy request, I am,

CLAREMONT F. PACKARD,
Sec'y H. L. Ass'n.

UNITED WAR WORK CAMPAIGN

By James Cardinal Gibbons.

America, through her soldiers in France, has voiced the spirit that leads to victory. They are our sons and brothers; flesh of our flesh, and the spirit that inspires them inspires us also. We have sent them across the sea to fight—but we have in heart and soul gone with them. We are determined that they should know that the people at home are fighting with them, standing with them, shouldering the load. America in this war has done what no other nation ever did. She has carried the presence, the atmosphere of home into the camps across the seas that everywhere the soldier may read there are fatherly hands to help him, motherly hands to console him, friends

MEMBER OF GOVERNOR'S COUNCIL

Harry H. Williams, 18 Newton street, Brockton, president of the C. S. Pierce Co., nominated as the republican candidate for councillor in this district at the recent State primaries, was appointed by Gov. Samuel W. McCall as a member of the governor's council, to serve out the unexpired term of the late David L. Parker of New Bedford, Thursday afternoon. The appointment was confirmed.

Mr. Williams was sworn in by the governor Wednesday morning and took his seat immediately after at the regular meeting of the council.

"I am, of course, pleased to receive the appointment for the interim up to election time," said Mr. Williams. "It means I will be in the earlier what promises to be pleasant associations. It is particularly gratifying that I will serve for a time under Gov. McCall, whose term soon expires."

Mr. Williams is unopposed for election, no democratic candidate being nominated.

Mr. Williams was elected thrice illustrious master at the annual meeting of Brockton Council, Royal and Select Masters, Thursday evening of last week.

The other officers elected were: Deputy master, Henry C. Hatch; principal conductor of the work, Theodore H. Alden; captain of the guard, Edward M. Carr of North Easton; conductor of the council, Albert A. Thomas of Middleboro; master, George A. Hall; recorder, Thomas J. Sofield; treasurer, Dr. Arthur L. Beale. The installation of officers will be held in November and will be conducted by Most Illustrious Grand Master of Massachusetts Wallace C. Keith, assisted by Grand Master of Ceremonies Arthur L. Beale.

OLD COLONY BOY SCOUT NEWS

The Old Colony Council is greatly in need of men to take the position of scoutmaster in the troops that lack leaders. The district is becoming well organized under the direction of the new Scout Executive, Mr. Duncan McKeever and great results are expected in the near future but the need of men is handicapping the whole program.

Men who are placed in deferred classes in the draft can render no better service than to become connected with some scout troop and help train the men of the future. Colonel Theodore Roosevelt says, "The duty of being scoutmaster comes next in importance to being in active service. If you haven't entered in this way in the Boy Scout Movement now is the time to join and find your place on Uncle Sam's team in helping win the war."

The troops in the district are getting down to their fall and winter work. Troop No. 1 of Cohasset has just cleared $100 from the proceeds of its garden. This troop made a gain over the $98 that it cleared last year and is an A1 hustling troop that will make the others jump to keep up.

Troop No. 5 of Braintree has been organized under the direction of Mr. Caloon. Three boys: Henry Dugan, Lyman Bowers and Frederick White of the Fox, Eagle and Flying Eagle patrols respectively have been receiving preliminary instruction at scout headquarters in preparation for the work of starting up the troop.

The medals for the fourth Liberty Loan have arrived and have been distributed to the scouts who earned the right to wear them by selling 10 Liberty Bonds for the issue. Thirty boys either qualified for the medals or bars which is a very good showing indeed. In order to receive a medal for the 4th loan the scout must sell 25 bonds, though he has the entire time of the loan in which to sell them.

The Scouts of Troop 5 of East Braintree feel very proud over the exploits of one of their number 2nd. class Scout Henry Trufer, who showed the value of his scout training when he saved the life of one of the State Steam Boiler Inspectors, who was overcome with gas while inspecting the boiler of the East Braintree Bleachery. Scout Trufer after being a rope around his waist crawled through a small manhole and succeeded in getting the unconscious man out.

Mr. Henry Caloon of East Braintree has succeeded in reorganizing Troop 5 of that community. Mr. Caloon is an ex-member of the militia, and is having great success in handling the scouts.

"Coon-Cats" of Maine.

The so-called "coon-cat," which is common all over Maine, is held by natives to be a cross between the cat and the raccoon. Biologists ridicule this belief; nevertheless many half wild cats in Maine have the typical raccoon tail with short forelegs, pointed snout and long hair.

Sardines and Herring.

Enormous quantities of very young herrings are caught in inlets along the Maine coast. These are packed in cottonseed oil and sold as "sardines," which is exactly on a par with selling chopped veal under the name of chicken. The true sardines are caught on the coasts of France, Spain and Italy and are packed in olive oil.

Nursery Note.

It costs Paris nearly $100,000 a year to care for the trees on its streets and boulevards and in its parks, more than 1,000 new ones being planted annually.

Do You Think There is No Competition?

If anyone thinks there is no competition amongst the big packers he ought to go through a day's work with Swift & Company.

Let him begin at the pens when the live stock comes in; let him try to buy a nice bunch of fat steers quietly and at his own price without somebody's bidding against him.

Let him realize the scrupulous care taken at the plant that not one thing is lost or wasted in order that costs may be held to a minimum.

Let him go up into the office where market reports are coming in,—and reports of what other concerns are doing.

Let him watch the director of the Swift Refrigerator fleet, maneuvering it over the face of the country like a fleet of battleships at sea.

Let him stay at a branch house for an hour or two and see the retail meat dealers drive their bargains to the last penny as they shop around among the packers' branch houses, the wholesale dealers, and the local packing plants.

And then, when the day is over, let him have half an hour in the accounting department, where he can see for himself on what small profit the business is done. (Less than 4 cents on each dollar of sales.)

If he still thinks there is no competition in the meat business it will be because he wants to think so.

A Word to the Borrower

If you are a borrower, don't you think it is an injustice to the man who is paying for it? He may be looking for it at this very moment. Make it a regular visit to your home. The description price is an investment that will repay you well.

No one thinks of disobeying the mandate or even the requests of Uncle Sam this year, and he has already told what he expects in the matter of Christmas giving. We are expected to cut down expenditures, to send as few parcels as possible by mail or express, to give inexpensive and useful presents to one another, and to do our shopping very early.

Even the boys over there can only have a small box—three pounds in weight. This being the case, we won't feel like an extravagant Christmas at home.

The breakfast or boudoir cap presented itself with sweet assurance—it is pretty, it is useful and it is inexpensive. It makes a small parcel and weighs next to nothing. Uncle Sam is bound to smile approval of it and it is sure to be more popular than ever this Christmas. Your pretty caps—for various ages—are shown in the picture, suited to feminine heads over which only a few summers have passed, and to others that can look back over the greater part of a century—or to those between these two extremes.

In the center is a cap for a young girl. It is made of light blue silk and has a narrow frill of Val lace about the face. Across the back there is a cap that hangs over the neck and is extended into rounded tabs at each side. It is edged with a frill of lace also. Three bows finish the cap, one at the front and one at each side. Two little pink chiffon roses are set at the center of each bow.

A New Sweater.

A new sweater in the popular leather color is knitted like a long scarf, edged all around with a band of finer knitting in the same tone. When the scarf is sewed together under the arms, the trimming band runs down the center back and front of the sweater, around the V neck opening, the wide armhole and below the armhole to the edge of the garment at each side. A narrow sash matches the trimming band and the sweater is bordered with worsted fringe around the bottom.

DANDRUFF MAKES HAIR FALL OUT

A small bottle of "Danderine" keeps hair thick, strong, beautiful.

Girls! Try this! Doubles beauty of your hair in a few moments.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine for a few cents at any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine—Ad.

Always Something Doing. Willis—How do you like army life? Quite a number of new turns for a fellow to get used to, I suppose. Gills—You bet. At night you turn in, and just as you are about to turn over somebody turns up and says "turn out"—Life.

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK, CROSS, FEVERISH

HURRY, MOTHER! REMOVE POISONS FROM LITTLE STOMACH, LIVER, BOWELS.

GIVE CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS AT ONCE IF BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a little, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative;" they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt—Ad.

U-BOAT CHASERS DO GREAT WORK

Allies Praise Americans for Part They Played in Durazzo Engagement.

ACTIVE DUTY PLEASES MEN

Squadron of Twelve Commanded by Captain Nelson Forms Screen for Big Warships—One of Fate's Queer Twists.

London.—A contingent of 12 American submarine chasers played brilliant and novel part in the Durazzo engagement. This chaser squadron effectively acted as a screen around the big ships engaged in the bombardment to protect them against submarines. The Americans were under heavy fire, but had no casualties.

Capt. C. P. Nelson and Lieut. Com. P. H. Bastedo commanded the squadron. A large percentage of the officers and men were of the naval reserve and reports of the operation praise their work highly.

The Americans definitely sank one submarine and damaged and probably destroyed another. After the engagement they escorted a British cruiser which had been hit by a torpedo safely to the base from which the expedition started. An enemy hospital ship was also taken in charge for examination.

Active Duty Pleases Men.

Throughout the bombardment and when the forces were approaching the harbor the chasers circled swiftly around the big ships. A report received here says the men had a good time and evidently were pleased with the success of the first achievement of this character the chasers had attempted to work. Heretofore they have been patrolling, dropping depth charges and firing on enemy submarines.

Austrian-Hungary has at the most only two modern battleships left; she has lost a large number of small craft, and now Durazzo, the advanced base of her depleted fleet, has been rendered useless, writes the British naval expert, Archibald Hurd, in the Daily Telegraph. Continuing, he says:

"Durazzo, practically dominating all one side of the Adriatic, was to the Austrians what Zeebrugge was once to the Germans. No effort had been spared to make it an impregnable port which would be valuable to the Austrians, as a base of military forces of the quadruple alliance in Athina, and in addition to a pistol aimed at the Alles-Marne, sullen, disposed of any attempt to make a hero of him for the deed. At the time Flannery was a lieutenant. He is at his home here on a furlough.

The wounded man lay on the bank across the river from where the Americans were stationed at Savigny.

Disregarding a French officer's warning that it probably was a ruse to attract Americans over the line,

Flannery waited until nightfall, when he stripped to his underclothing and swam across. The Germans spotted him and most of the trip was under water. Flannery tells the rest of the story as follows:

"When I got over I found the man. All the French I knew was 'ic, ic'—here, here—and then the bird went hysterical and refused to come into the water. He was too weak to do the rope I had brought along, so I had to drag him in. We got over all right.

"But the joke was that a couple of days later I got orders to report to a French colony. Headquarters was about seven miles away, so I hoofed it back, expected to be put on patrol duty of some sort, was presented with a map, and couldn't find out what the program was. They told me to go straight behind a major. I did, but the major kept running around, and me around like a goat.

"Then I was told go forward on the parade ground, and a French general had me up, pointed a sword at me and turned on the French. It wasn't much of a conversation, for I didn't know what he was talking about, so I just grinned. Then he let down the sword, pinned this on me—the Croix de Guerre—and started kissing me. Say, that mustache tickled me from ear to ear. I'm off saving men after this."

They told me to go straight behind a major. I did, but the major kept running around, and me around like a goat.

"Then I was told go forward on the parade ground, and a French general had me up, pointed a sword at me and turned on the French. It wasn't much of a conversation, for I didn't know what he was talking about, so I just grinned. Then he let down the sword, pinned this on me—the Croix de Guerre—and started kissing me. Say, that mustache tickled me from ear to ear. I'm off saving men after this."

"When I got over I found the man. All the French I knew was 'ic, ic'—here, here—and then the bird went hysterical and refused to come into the water. He was too weak to do the rope I had brought along, so I had to drag him in. We got over all right.

"But the joke was that a couple of days later I got orders to report to a French colony. Headquarters was about seven miles away, so I hoofed it back, expected to be put on patrol duty of some sort, was presented with a map, and couldn't find out what the program was. They told me to go straight behind a major. I did, but the major kept running around, and me around like a goat.

The first record of the use of springs on railways is George Stephenson's patent of September 1816. The first locomotive with steel springs was the 'Agenoria' built by Foster and Rastrick in 1820, and now in South Kensington museum, London. This had laminated springs on the leading wheels.

Mr. Parker was born in Nova Scotia, and was the son of Warren J. and Edela Parker. He is survived by a wife and daughter. The funeral was held at Saint Paul's Church, Burial in St. Frances Xavier cemetery, Weymouth.

In a sense a shock was felt throughout the community when the news spread of the sudden death of Mr. Alfred Cushing of South Hingham. It is thought that he suffered a shock. The union of the Y.M. C. A. the Y.W.C.A. the United Catholic War Council (K. of C.), the Jewish Welfare Board, the American Library Association, the War Camp Community Service and the Salvation Army is a glorious union. Their activities overlap and melt into each other.

One of the interesting departments of this campaign is that which gives great prominence to the work of the boys and girls.

A million boys are asked to enroll as Victory Boys with the slogan "A million boys behind a million fighters."

Each boy who enrolls promises to earn in his own efforts and give five dollars to aid in making a soldier comfortable.

Every girl between twelve and twenty is challenged to share in this campaign to keep our fighters fit. Victory Girls is the name of the Girls' Earn and Give Division of the United War Work Campaign and the slogan "Every Girl Pulling for Victory." SPANISH INFLUENZA--WHAT IT IS AND HOW IT SHOULD BE TREATED

Nothing New—Simply the Old Grip or La Grippe That Was Epidemic in 1889-90, Only Then It Came From Russia by Way of France and This Time by Way of Spain

Go to Bed and Stay Quiet—Take a Laxative—Eat Plenty of Nourishing Food—Keep Up your Strength—Nature Is the Only "Cure"

ALWAYS CALL A DOCTOR

NO OCCASION FOR PANIC Spanish influenza, which appeared in Spain in May, has all the appearances of grip, or la grippe, which has swept over the world in numerous epidemics as far back as history runs. Hippocrates refers to an epidemic in 412 B. C., which is regarded by many to have been influenza. Every century has had its attacks. Beginning with 1831 this country has had five epidemics, the last in 1889-90.

There is no occasion for panic—Influenza itself has a very low percentage of fatalities—not over one death out of every 400 cases, according to the N. C. board of health. The chief danger lies in complications arising, attacking principally patients in a run-down condition—those who don't go to bed soon enough or those who get up too early.

THE SYMPTOMS Grip, or influenza, as it is now called, usually begins with a chill, followed by chills, feverishness, and sometimes nausea and dizziness, and a general feeling of weakness and depression. The temperature is usually 100° F., and the fever usually lasts from three to five days. The germs attack the mucous membrane or lining of the air passages, nose, throat and bronchial tubes; there is usually a hard cough, especially bad at night; oftentimes a sore throat or tonsillitis, and frequently all the appearances of a severe head cold.

THE TREATMENT Go to bed at the first symptoms, not only for your own sake, but to avoid spreading the disease to others—take a purgative, eat plenty of nourishing food, remain perfectly quiet and don't worry. Quinine, aspirin or Dover's Powders, etc., may be administered by the physician's directions to relieve the aching. But there is no cure or specific for influenza; the disease must run its course. Nature herself will throw off the attack if only you keep up your strength. The chief danger lies in the complications which may arise. Influenza so weakens the bodily resistance that there is danger of pneumonia or bronchitis developing, and sometimes inflammation of the middle ear, or tonsillitis. But remember, it is very important that the patient remain in bed until his strength returns—stay in bed at least two days or more after the fever has left you, or if you are over 50 or not strong, stay in bed four days or more, according to the severity of the attack.

It's Acid-Stomach That Makes Millions Sick and Suffer

Life is dark—so dark—much to the man or woman with an acid-stomach. Acid-stomach kills Hope, Ambition, Energy, Courage. It saps the strength of the strongest body. It causes the body to feel weak and tired, and brings on premature old age.

You know what acid-stomach does to teeth and bones. It eats away the enamel through the hard enamel, causing the teeth to decay. Just imagine, then, what it does to the delicate organization of the stomach. Millions of people are sick and suffering all the time. In fact, it is an either, from super acidity or acid-stomach.

They are sick all the time. Just ailing. Going along like week, listless, dragging on food after another. Their appetites are bad. They eat and eat, and pounce, frequently have severe attacks of pain, sometimes headaches subject to fits of melancholy and continual depression.

And, nearly always, there are many experiences of actual stomach pain—dipping pain—never getting anything out of the stomach.

So, you see, it's just this—acid-stomach, that makes millions sick and suffer—sapping up the strength they should have from their food—taking away their vigor and vitality—leaving them weak and inefficient.

EXTERNAL APPLICATIONS
In order to stimulate the lining of the air passages to throw off the grippe germs, to aid in loosening the phlegm and keeping the air passages open, thus making the breathing easier, Vick's VapoRub will be found effective. Hot, wet towels should be applied over the throat, chest and back, though the VapoRub should be applied to the nose. Then VapoRub should be applied in over the parts until the skin is red, spread on thickly and cover with two thicknesses of hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck, as the heat of the body liberates the ingredients in the form of vapors. These vapors, inhaled with each breath, carry the medication directly to the parts affected. At the same time VapoRub is absorbed through the skin, stimulates the skin, attracting the blood to the surface, and thus aids in relieving the congestion within.

HOW TO AVOID THE DISEASE
Evidence seems to prove that this is a germ disease, spread principally by human contact, chiefly through coughing, sneezing or spitting. So avoid persons having colds—which means avoiding crowds—common drinking cups, roller towels, etc. Keep up your bodily strength by plenty of sleep, exercise, and a good diet.

Above all, avoid colds, as colds irritate the lining of the air passages and render them much better breeding places for the germs.

KEEP FRESH FROM COLDS
Use Vick's VapoRub at the very first sign of a cold. For a head cold, melt a little VapoRub in a spoon and inhale the vapors, or better still, use VapoRub in a benzol steam kettle. If this is not available, use an ordinary tea-kettle. Fill half full of boiling water, put in half a teaspoon of VapoRub from time to time—keep the kettle just slowly boiling and inhale the steam arising.

Note—Vick's VapoRub is the discovery of a North Carolina druggist, who found how to combine, in salve form, Menthol and Camphor with such volatile oils as Eucalyptus, Thyme, Camphor, etc., so that when the salve is applied to the body heat, these ingredients are liberated in the form of vapors.

VapoRub is comparatively new in New York State and New England and a few Western states where it is just now being introduced, but in other sections of the country it is the standard home remedy in more than a million homes for all forms of colds.

Over 2,000,000 jars were sold last year. VapoRub can be had in three sizes at all druggists. It is particularly recommended for children's colds and colds, since it is externally applied and therefore can be used as freely as desired without the slightest harmful effects.

Largest French Cargo Boat
On April 24th last, the largest steamship ever built for the French merchant marine was launched from the Chantiers de France at Dunkirk, France. The vessel measures 444 feet in length, displaces 19,000 tons, and has a total carrying capacity of 12,000 tons.

The Germans tried to destroy the ship by aerial bombs, with long-range guns and by destroyers. The successful completion of the work is a wonderful tribute to French determination in the face of almost insuperable obstacles.

The Japanese language is now included in the course of study in the high schools of Australia.

Of the 650 tons of ivory brought annually into England, Sheffield consumes a third.

More Than 2,000,000 Yanks Over There

He says that "it may be" that future war will be brought under the control of the German people, but he adds that the present war—the one with which the world is concerned—is not, and he adds that it is evident that the German people today are without the power of commanding the acquiescence of the military authorities.

In addition to the reply of the president, there was made public by Joseph P. Tumulty, the president's secretary, a letter from the president to Secretary of War Baker, congratulating both the war and navy departments on the successful transportation of more than 2,000,000 soldiers overseas.

Text of Reply.

President Wilson's reply to the latest German note follows:

"Department of State, Oct. 23.

"Sir—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your note of the 22d, transmitting a communication under date of the 20th from the German government, and to advise you that the president has instructed me to reply thereto as follows:

"Having received the solemn and explicit assurance of the German government that it unreservedly accepts the terms of peace laid down in his address to the congress of the United States on the 8th of January, 1918, and the principles of settlement enunciated in his subsequent addresses, particularly the address of the 27th of September, and that it desires to discuss the details of their application,

Get rid of the excess acid. That's the secret of the cure. That's the only way to obtain good digestion and assimilation. It is the right way to be well and strong. It is the right way to live and last long.

The best way to get rid of excess acid is to eat well, to eat slowly, to eat easily.

Their action in the stomach is a good deal like that of plotting paper, taking a drop of acid and scattering it over the injurious excess acid and carry it away.

Then the acid is gone. It makes it possible to remove excess acid without the slightest discomfort. It is called EATONIC.

"But, daddy—"

Mr. Braudlin put down his paper again after approximately six attempts to read the latest war news.

"Now, Jane," he expostulated impatiently, shaking the ash from his cigar, "you are a nice, remarkable girl whenever it suits you to be so, and quite every once in a while you take me at my word—also whenever it suits you. Why not let this be the time and stop where you are? We've argued this thing enough now. Let's quit and call it a day."

"Now, daddy, please don't be sarcastic. I'm really the most reasonable person alive. After all, when it was important you always gave in, you know. You merely argued for form's sake. It was that way about the trip to Hawaii, and the set of Siberian sables, and the pearl necklace, and the new carriage. You see whenever it was anything big—something that really mattered, you always let me do as I wished. So surely, when it's a question of a husband—"

"If he was anything big that really counted—" began Mr. Braudlin.

"Daddy!"

His eyes twinkled. "Well, you know what I think of him, Jane. To quote Hawthorne: 'He's all right, but he won't do—for you. Say, girlie, what's put this marrying bee into your bonnet, anyway? What do you want to get married for? I've worked like an old war horse all my life just so you

MEMORY THAT WILL LAST

French Gratitude to America is Deeply Engraved on the Hearts of Her People.

Kathleen Norris, writing in the Woman's Home Companion, gives an imaginary conversation with a young French girl describing the coming of the American soldiers to France as she is supposed to remember it:

"And men—to stand beside our men—from America! I remember standing at the chateau gateway on a bright November afternoon and seeing them come up the road. Soldiers! We were used to soldiers! But these were different. Grandmère was with me, we had been here all the time.

"They came along, in the streaming afternoon sunlight, and they smiled and waved at me. 'They are the Americans!' Grandmère said, and she began to cry softly, 'God bless them—God bless them!' she whispered, over and over. And that night, as you know, we had their officers at the chateau, and one of them told me he also had a daughter, not much younger than I, and that her name was Virginia.

"I don't know why—for, God knows, there were hard times, and dark times, ahead. But from that moment I felt—hope. Child that I was, I seemed to see, behind those marching men, the big and generous nation that was dedicating itself to their service, the women everywhere, with their sewing and cooking, saving and planning, their letters and their prayers—all one in their work for an ideal beside which the comfort and the ease of this generation was as nothing!"

REAL JOB, THAT OF THE "UMP"

Man Who Holds Indicator in Professional Ball Game Surely Has No "Soft Snap."

There are those who will scoff at the idea that umpling a ball game is work, but let these just once stand out in the broiling sun of July or August and judge a two-hour game, while watching intently every moment by two keen-eyed managers, thirty or forty players, as familiar with the rules as the indicator holders, and several thousand excited, restless and shouting spectators, every one of whom is anxious to detect some slip in judgment upon the part of the man in blue. Let them labor for that length of time without encouragement, but with shouts of disapproval ringing in their ears at frequent intervals, or have several players step on their toes with their spiked shoes, while making threats and referring in slighting terms to every one connected with them from their remotest ancestors down to the present period, and they will be ready and willing to admit but to make affidavit that the umpire actually works.—Leisure's Magazine.

Aerial Tank.

An aerial tank has been invented and put into practical use by Italian soldiers who have astounded the world by their extraordinary feats in mountain warfare. An Austrian machine gun emplacement was so situated on a mountain side that it poured a harassing fire into an Italian post. The Austrian position was unassassable by ordinary means, but it was necessary that it be wiped out. A "Teleferic" car, many of which are operated by the Italians across chasms and up mountain sides, was armored and equipped with machine guns. Volunteers were called for, and from the many who responded two were chosen to man the guns. This improvised aerial dreadnaught was then swung out across the valley. After one or two exploration trips at a dizzy height, the men in the car finally located the Austrian post and quickly put it out of action.

Salvage.

The following letter was written by the wife of a man fighting overseas to a member of the Salvage club, an official organization for preventing war waste:

"Dear Sir: I called at your office on Wednesday at one o'clock, but was told you were engaged on salvage, and that I could not see you. I wanted to ask you about Bert's teeth what he lost at the front in the mud—do I still have to keep up the payments of them on the installment plan? I feel quite sure that your Salvage club what they talks about would have the marten put right if you would only mention it. Yours respectfully ——London Tit-Bits.

Speed Indicators.

A useful instrument, especially in clouds, is the air speed indicator. This tells the pilot his speed through the air. It also helps him to know whether he is rising or descending. For instance, if the speed of the machine flying level is 100 miles an hour, any speed registered above that will show the machine is coming down, and anything below it that the machine is climbing. The difference in speeds will show to what extent the craft is descending or climbing. There is also a proper fore-and-aft level to indicate climb and descend, but for various technical reasons the pilot usually depends on the air speed indicator.

Jerusalem Enjoys "Movies." The moving picture has acquired a sudden and enormous popularity in Jerusalem, particularly among the native population, according to letters from soldiers there. It is impossible to accommodate the crowds that try to attend the theater. People almost fought to get into a big theater when the film depicting the occupation of Beersheba was shown.

HULLONIANS' HAPPY HOURS

Mr. William Mitchell, with a friend of his, was at home over the week-end.

—We are sorry to state that Mrs. Katherine Walsh of K street is ill. She is fortunate in having such an efficient nurse as her sister-in-law, Mrs. Katherine Labre, in attendance.

Mr. Frederick Vogel, member of Tufts College S. A. T. C., was at home over the week-end.

Last Friday evening a dance was held in the Town hall, in benefit of the 22d Company at Fort Revere. The popular "Clarence's Orchestra" furnished music for the occasion.

Friends of Miss Molly Gilman, the attractive postmistress at Allerton, are glad to see her again after her long illness.

Mr. Fred H. Morgan, Field Agent of the Zion's Herald, gave a lecture in the M. E. church on Sunday evening, on "The Building of an Empire." It was the story of the growth of Methodism in the early days in New England. Much was added to its interest by the stereopticon slides which were shown as he spoke.

Mr. Morgan spent two days collecting these slides, which were prepared especially for him, and they probably the finest set of their kind in existence.

To a church which is at the present time using a communion set dated 1774, the early history of New England Methodism is the history of its own beginning.

Mr. John G. Waterhouse began his duties as clerk of the 1st Company at Fort Revere on Monday.

Honey Burns of Surfside and Wellington MacDonald of Nanasket are attending Mechanics Arts.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hyland of Strawberry Hill have moved to Cambridge for the winter.

Miss May O'Brien of Kennerba, who is now a stenographer at Cambridge, expects to sail for France within the next month.

Miss Ethel S. Powdrill of Windermer and her son Robert returned to their home in Brookline on Sunday. Mr. Powdrill is on a business trip in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland returned to their city home this week.

Miss Priscilla McLean will live in Brookline this winter.

The United War Work campaign for Hall is in charge of Mr. Kingdon. The quota allotted to the town is $5,000 which amount will be divided proportionately between the seven recognized general agencies. Especial contributions may be made to any one of them, but these contributions will not affect the final total for each. This campaign affords an excellent opportunity for men of every race and creed to work together in a common cause. Mr. Kingdon is approaching this campaign in the most broad-minded spirit. We hope that every agency and every individual of the town will co-operate with a spirit which will be as helpful as his own.

Mr. Mark T. Hurley, whose summer home is at Strawberry Hill, and who is now stationed at Camp Devens, expects to leave there for France next month.

Mr. Charles V. Antone and family have moved to Dorchester for the winter. Allerton will miss the musical group of sisters in this family.

Mrs. Lillian Barrow is engaged in voluntary war work at the State House. Since Mr. Barrow's enlistment in the navy she has been making her home with her parents, Captain and Mrs. William C. Sparrow, at the Pt. Allerton Coast Guard Station at Stony Beach. Previous to that time her home was in Birmingham, Alabama.

—GUIDA GILLIUSSEN.

Mrs. Flora Bowden has been called to Southboro by the illness of her sister, Mrs. Wilma Kingsbury. Mrs. Carrie E. Mitchell has been substituting for her during her absence.

John Waterhouse, noble grand of Old Colony Lodge left Monday for Fort Warren, where he will be enrolled in the service. John has been trying for some time to get into some branch of the service, but did not pass for over six months.

Mrs. Eugenia Mitchell has been quite seriously ill at her home on Main street, but, at present writing, we are glad to state is somewhat better. Mrs. Penfold, her daughter, is taking care of Mrs. Mitchell.

There was an executive meeting of Village School Parent-Teacher Ass'n on Tuesday evening at the home of Rev. Frank Kingdon.

Mrs. Lloyd C. Miller is enjoying a two weeks' vacation in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael O'Donnell, a family who are among the respected summer residents of Hull Village, where they have summered in their pretty cottage, have moved to Jamaica Plain recently.

Miss Helen Antone will not go back to school until after Christmas by order of her physician.

Mrs. Walter Harmon is residing in Brookline this winter while her husband is at the front.

Rev. Jas. Kelliker, recently returned from Rome, has been appointed to take Rev. Andrew J. O'Brien's chair at St. John's Seminary in Brighton.

COPLEY THEATRE

"Officer 666," the play by Augustin McHugh which has been received with universal favor wherever acted both in this country and in England, will be given next week by the Henry Jewett Players at the Copley Theatre. It is aptly described as a melodramatic farce, for its incidents and dialogue are an ingeniously woven combination of the humorous with the sensational.

The central figure of "Officer 666" is a young millionaire who discovers that young men fail to furnish him with enough of the spice of life that makes entertaining the passing of his days. Suddenly he returns home from a tour around the world, and finds immediately plenty of incidents to while away his time. He discovers that his mansion is occupied by a man who claims to be a picture expert, and that he is about to depart with the punder of valuable paintings and bric-a-brac with which the house is filled.

From this starting point the play is filled with dramatic surprises and clean fun of the sort that appeal to all playgoers. How the young millionaire outwits the burglar by knowing the uniform of a policeman, how he meets a society girl who is arrested as the burglar's accomplice; and how he falls in love with her at first sight and saves the thief; all these things remain for the dramatist to tell in the course of a play that is ingenious in its plot and shrewdly amusing in its telling.

This will be the first production of "Officer 666" at the Copley, and staged under the personal direction of Henry Jewett all its humor and all its sensation will be cleverly brought out in its acting. The cast will include Mr. Clive, Mr. Leslie, Mr. Wingfield, Mr. Pernau, Mr. Craske, Mr. Podmore, Mr. Weston, Miss Newcombe, Miss Viola Roach.

For both matinees and evenings there is a schedule of popular prices, with all orchestra seats at $1.00.

LIBERTY LOAN COMMITTEE OF NEW ENGLAND

Publicity Committee
October 24, 1918
Advertising Manager, East Wind, Hull, Mass.
Dear Madam:

If it were possible, I would like to sit at your desk and personally express my gratitude to you for the aid which you have given this Committee in the "Fighting Fourth" Liberty Loan Campaign.

The incredible difficulties which had to be met by the Liberty Loan Committees throughout New England because of public health conditions, took away from them the opportunities to reach people through mass meetings, to influence them by parades, or to secure subscriptions through enthusiasm generated by brass bands and other devices which have been used in previous campaigns.

In spite of this, the record, when it all will be made up at the end of this year, will undoubtedly show that New England has made another creditable contribution to the nation's financial problems.

The very difficulties which we had to surmount make it all the more clear that newspaper publicity had much to do with the success of the campaign. This letter, therefore, is to express to you our gratitude for the excellent and generous treatment which you gave the news of the Loan, locally, for the entire district, and nationally as well, which has kept the people thoroughly aroused to the work to be done, and the new methods of doing it.

We also desire through your columns, to express our acknowledgement generally to those patriotic citizens who contributed to the publication of the "Fighting Fourth" Liberty Loan advertising.

May I hope that you will do all that you can to make people see that now the bonds are bought, that instalment payments shall be maintained, and when the bonds are paid for that they shall be kept.

With every good wish, we are
Very truly yours,
Liberty Loan Committee of
New England,
JNO. K. ALLEN,
Chairman Publicity Comm.

O. E. S. ITEM

Owing to the prevailing epidemic the first regular meeting in October of Dorothy Bradford Chapter, O. E. S. was omitted.

A special meeting was called for Saturday evening October 19 for the purpose of conferring the degrees. It was voted to purchase two more Liberty bonds.

At the second meeting, October 21, the initiatory work was done in a very creditable manner, upon two candidates. The social hour was in charge of Sister Mary L. Tirrell.
